Inspirational and Ethical Leadership in Action
"Transforming Communities through Whole-Person Education."

Vision: A peaceful world where everyone fulfills their potential

Values: Self-responsibility, equality, inclusiveness, honesty, forgiveness

Purpose: To provide solutions to combat discrimination and develop potential through a Whole-Person education curriculum pioneered by young leaders into communities

Mission: To put the Whole-Person curriculum at the heart of our nation, starting with empowering young leaders

Working with Lord Taylor.

The WLF would like to wish all its supporters a very Happy New Year!

This month welcomes Milenia MatKowska from Poland. Milenia has just completed an Msc at LSE in European Studies. She wants to work for the European Parliament or European Commission.

Liz met actor Kevin Whately – Inspector Lewis from the Morse TV series.

They attended an Equity event in Parliament to sign a petition against the use of Music for torture.

Lord Taylor talked to pupils from Westminster City School about his life story and political career. The school is one of the WLF focus groups. Deputy Head Elena Soto (far left) described the talk as "inspirational".

In the Spotlight!

We like to keep in touch with past interns. This month, we are featuring Krzysztof Wach. He is now a chartered accountant and works for a top UK company.
