Inspirational and Ethical Leadership in Action
"Transforming Communities through Whole-Person Education."

Vision: A peaceful world where everyone fulfills their potential
Values: Self-responsibility, equality, inclusiveness, honesty, forgiveness
Purpose: To provide solutions to combat discrimination and develop potential through a Whole-Person education curriculum pioneered by young leaders into communities
Mission: To put the Whole-Person curriculum at the heart of our nation, starting with empowering young leaders

Lord Taylor of Warwick

Lord Taylor welcomes new interns Ruth McIlmoyle and Sam Baldwin

Lord Taylor attended May's WLF training event. This was part of a public speaking programme that current interns have been participating in. Edwin gave a speech about the recent American Elections and the influence of online networking on voting participation. Milenia spoke about the forthcoming European Elections and her ambition to work in the European Parliament. Liz analysed the media and public reaction to President Obama's first 100 days in office.

In the Spotlight

We like to keep in touch with past interns. This month, we are featuring Cheryl Stevens!

Cheryl returned to the U.S.A. after WLF. She has just finished her first year at Vermont Law School, where she is Co-Chair of the Women's Law Group. She is doing a French Dual Law Degree Program at Cergy-Pontoise University, northwest of Paris. Cheryl hopes to become a lawyer at the United Nations in New York in support of human rights.

WLF Interns with Speaking Coaches Merry Graham and Paul Barfett.

These regular sessions advance interns presentation skills. They receive feedback from their colleagues as well as from their trainers. Maggie Holleran, Project Leader for Yes To Life cancer charity, also attended.
