WLF Family

We like to keep in touch with past interns, to see what they have been doing since leaving WLF. This month, we are featuring Robert.

Robert Yates

After completing a 7 month internship with WLF, Robert is now headed for Latvia. He will act as a farmhand and children's counsellor at an orphanage for several months. From Latvia, Robert will return to complete his studies at Aston University. For more information on the orphanage visit www.grasi.apollo.lv.

Communication Master Class

Past, present and future interns gathered at 1 Abbey Gardens for a challenging and stimulating seminar on communication skills. It was hosted by Lord Taylor, featuring special guest speaker Michael Bland. He is a renowned communications consultant and author, who has worked with major organisations worldwide.

Michael Bland

Michael highlighted the importance of understanding the audience you are addressing and knowing exactly what message you are trying to deliver. He encouraged the interns to be passionate when communicating.

The enjoyable seminar ended with a most productive question and answer session. WLF is planning future exciting seminars!
