WLF Family

We like to keep in touch with past interns, to see what they have been doing since leaving WLF. This month, we are featuring Livia!

Livia Anzaldo

Livia now works for The Guild of Professional Estate Agents where she is in charge of marketing and overseas property sales.

Her roles include development of the brand, assisting in the production and editing of their international magazine and organising campaigns. This often involves negotiating advertising rates and international distribution.

Livia plans to move to Dubai next year to start up her own property business. Good luck Livia!

Interns Visit Schools

To get practical feedback for the WLF curriculum, interns Cheryl and Robert visited Walworth School in Southwark and St. George’s Roman Catholic School in the City of Westminster.

At Walworth School we talked with Deputy Head William Pratt about integrating the WLF system with their own pupil development plan. We also discussed the importance of children developing their personalities.

With Adrian Dixon, the Assistant Head at St. George’s School, we discussed not only WLF’s importance to pupils, but also its relevance to the teachers.

As a result of this valuable feedback from the schools, we were able to make the WLF’s schools project even more relevant to the needs of our future citizens.
